HOUSE OF ILL FAME, CHARGE

Jury Fails to Return Verdict in
Trial of William Sumnam for
Illegal Sale of Liquor

Another state case was being heard today in the circuit court by a jury, the case today being with Elizabeth Lawson as defendant, charged with keeping a house of ill repute.

The jury which heard the case yesterday of the State against William Sumnam, charged with unlawfully selling liquor, failed to reach a verdict and was discharged about ten o'clock last night.

The jury got the case at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, and it was said that they were divided equally as to a verdict, which resulted in them being discharged without returning a verdict. Three other cases are pending against the defendant.

The case today was attracting considerable interest, as the alleged house of ill fame is located at 217 West Sixth street in the more select residential district. Over 20 witnesses in the vicinity were summoned as witnesses for the state.

Prosecutor Stevens in his opening remarks to the jury stated that the state would prove that the defendant associated with men of questionable character, who were seen entering and leaving the house by neighbors, and the state's attorney mentioned over a long list of men, whom he said were men of bad character.

The list mentioned the name of "Chuck" Taylor who only recently had his parole revoked and is in prison; the name of George Allen, an alleged bootlegger of Alpine, who was given a suspended sentence by Judge Sparks, upon condition that he keep away from Rushville, but the sentence was revoked when he was noticed visiting "the alleged house of ill fame," after the court's order was violated.

The prosecutor also cited several Rushville young men who had been seen at the place, and he mentioned the fact that when the house was raided shortly before the arrest, two men were found in the house, "partly liquored."

The prosecutor laid stress on the fact that the police had been called

Blanche Alsman is plaintiff in the divorce suit filed against Thomas O. Alsman, the complaint alleging cruel treatment, and that the defendant has threatened her. ## HOUSE VOTES TO SUPPORT M'CRAY

Rapid Developments Today Indicate
Special Session of Legislature
Will Meet His Request

BILL IS PLACED ON PASSAGE

House on Record as Favoring Suspension of Rules And Senate Will Follow Suit

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 14.—Rapid developments in the special legislature, convened here today, indicated the session will be limited to consideration of the reformatory removal measure, for which it was called.

The house of representatives voted 80 to 12 to support the recommendations of Governor McCray voiced in his special message to the house and senate "respectfully asking" them to curb their activities.

The vote came on a motion to suspend the constitutional rule which requires the bill be read on three separate days and the reformatory bill was placed on passage.

Senator Duncan of Cloverdale, chairman of the senate finance committee, indicated the upper branch would take similar action with regard to the reformatory wherein he also said his committee would refuse to consider the soldier bonus measure.

The bonus question was considered the strongest weapon of the insurgent forces in their efforts to prolong the session. Leaders of the veterans of the foreign war beseeched the legislators before the opening with the request for a bonus of $10 a month for ex-service men and women for each month they served or that alternatives be paid educational tuition.

Both houses were called to order shortly after ten o'clock. Claud Smith of Princeton was named speaker of the house by a vote of 82 to 10. The ten negative votes were cast by the democratic minority who favored R. W. Barker of Posey county, democratic floor leader.

Senator Douglas of Flatrock was in his seat although he has not resigned as a member of the public service commission. Senator Duncan who was also on the job, had not resigned as head of the teachers' pension board.

DAIL SESSION ALSO OPENS

Bitter Clash Between De Valera and
Collins When Former Says Delegates Exceeded Instructions

By ED L. KEEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
London, Dec. 14.—In a gorgeous setting the British Parliament opened today to hear the speech of his majesty King George and vote on the Anglo-Irish treaty.

The brilliant court of St. James was assembled at Westminster in a scene of kingly grandeur to take part in what seemed to amount to a celebration of the inauguration of the prospective Irish free state.

"It was with heartfelt joy that I learned an agreement had been reached, after many months," the king said.

"It has affected not only the welfare of Ireland, but the British and Irish races throughout the world. "It is my earnest hope that by the articles of this agreement now submitted to you the strife of centuries may be ended and Ireland as a free partner in the commonwealth of nations forming the British empire, will secure fulfillment of her national ideals.

The speech was very brief, submitting the treaty for ratification.

After the address Parliament adjourned until 3 p. m. according to custom. It will assemble at that time to discuss the peace pact and hear the speech of Premier Lloyd George.

The indication was Premier Lloyd George would advance this other business when he speaks this afternoon.

The scene was the most brilliant of the present reign.

It was an occasion of grandeur, gorgeous uniforms, brilliant robes, coronets, flashing insignia, peeresses, wondrous shimmering jewels and lavish court gowns.

His majesty left the palace in the famous state coach drawn by eight horses escorted by gold spangled footmen and escorts. A detachment of heralds cleared the line of march for the royal procession. Scarlet clad guards kept the crowds jammed on the pavements.

Dublin, Dec. 14.—A bitter clash between Eamon De Valera and Michael Collins marked the opening of the Dail Eirrean to consider the Anglo-Irish peace today.

"The Irish peace delegates at London exceeded their instructions," De Valera charged.

JOHN C. HOKEY IS SENT TO JAIL TODAY

Former I. & C. Ticket Agent, Arrested Year Ago For Embezzle-
ment Brought to Court

MISTREATING WIFE, CHARGE

John C. Hokey appeared before Judge Sparks this afternoon about three o'clock, being ordered to report on a charge upon which he was arrested over a year ago, on December 8, 1920, in connection with the alleged theft of money from the I. & C. ticket office, where he was an agent, and he entered a plea of guilty this afternoon to the charge.

He is charged with embezzlement and grand larceny, and about a year ago he was released from jail on bond, never having been arraigned. Judge Sparks this afternoon did not have time to take the case up, and the matter will be disposed of tomorrow.

The defendant went to jail upon default of $2,000 bond. It is understood that as long as the defendant behaved himself the matter would complaints have reached the court, complaints have reached the court that he has been mistreating his wife, and Sheriff Jones was ordered to produce him in court immediately.

URGE INNOVATION IN APPRAISEMENT

Resolutions Adopted by Rush County
Farmers Association Recommend
Township Advisory Committees

TO WORK WITH THE ASSESSOR

Fred Bell is Re-elected President
For Third Successive Term at
Closing Session—Others Named

A proposal that the chairman of each township association of farmers appoint three representative farmers of his township to act as an advisory committee to advise with the township assessor in the reassessment of real estate in 1922, was incorporated in the resolutions which were unanimously adopted at the closing session of the annual convention of the Rush County Farmers association at the Graham Annex auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

As a part of the closing business, the association also named officers for the coming year, re-electing Fred Bell as county president for the third successive term. The selection of Mr. Bell again is regarded as a testimonial to the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the association. Mr. Bell has been president of the association since its inception and has been so enthusiastic in his devotion to the interests of the organization, that the members would not consent for him to retire.

Harry McMillin of Union township was elected vice-president to succeed Charles Pencer of Richland township. Jesse Peters of Union township was re-elected treasurer.

In addition to suggesting the innovation in assessing real estate, the resolutions also commended the officers of the association for their interest in it, commended the work of the county agent, expressed the thanks of the association for all of the agencies which assisted in making the Rush County Products Show a success, endorsed all efforts to eliminate the expense of delivering farm produce to the consumer, recommended care in the conduct of public business with a view of reducing expenses and endorse the Christmas seals campaign.

The resolution committee made the following report which was adopted. 1. Resolved that this federation hereby express its thanks to our energetic County Agent, and to the

NATIONAL GUARD TO OPPOSE AMAZON ARMY

Kansas Troops Mobilized to Take
Field Against Women Who Are
Fighting Lews Adherents

MINERS MADE TO TAKE OATH

Topeka, Kansas, Dec. 14.—National guard troops were mobilized to take the field in southern Kansas coal mine country against the "Amazon army." The troops gathered at their armory preparatory to entrain nearly one thousand strong as 3,000 wives, daughters, sweethearts and sisters of striking rump miners, lead by a band and flying flags swept south from Franklin, red center, to invade the Lewis administration forces.

In a very picturesque formation the women of the coal fields, each section commanded by a general, rushed on. Some women carried babies, some led their children, others turned them over to the men who stood to one side and encouraged the women to continue their march on the mines where the miners work.

After the top of the mine was cleared, the women swarmed into the pit, seized the miners, brought them to the surface and beat them. The miners were forced to kneel. A huge American flag was unfurled. The women commanded them to kiss the flag and take the oath never to work into the southern Kansas until ordered to do so by Alexander Howatt. They kissed the flag and took the oath.

At the annual election of officers by the Kiwanis club at the regular weekly luncheon, held in the basement of the First Baptist church, the old officers, who have not yet served a full year, were elected unanimously.

Dr. J. M. Lee of this city and Dr. H. G. Metcalf of New Salem were guests. The dinner was served by the Ladies Aid society of the church.

The election resulted as follows: Samuel L. Trabue, president; George Y. Hogsett, vice-president; William A. Young, secretary; Lewis M. Sexton, treasurer; J. T. Arbuckle, district trustee and C. L. Bebout, Fred M. Hammer, Harry Kramer, Byron Cowing, Charles S. Green, Wilmer V. Brown and Fred G. Arbuckle members of the board of directors.

The Daily Republican-Salvation Army Santa Claus fund today made a wonderful advance—larger than any single day during the campaign thus far, but there are still many friends of old Kris Kingle who are always found in the list of contributors, that have not responded to the appeal yet.

Almost as much was added today—$141.63—as had been contributed before today, due to the gift of $122 by the members of the Rushville Rotary club. This, together with $100 from the Elks lodge, accounts for most of the fund to date, which is evidence enough that the many contributors who usually help swell the fund, have not yet felt the urge of Santa Claus and have not yet realized that many little folks in Rushville will go Christmasless without their aid.

Several thoughtful little folks have already come forward and added their bit to the sum which will go towards providing gifts for children less fortunate than they. It is believed that there are many more like them who will eventually dig into their little banks and take out a liberal share of their savings for the little unfortunates.

The Salvation Army kettle is still doing valiant duty on the streets, adding a sum close to $6.00 each day. As Christmas approaches, the daily offering of the kettle will increase, it is believed. At least this has been the experience in former years.

There is no occasion for slacking on the part of Santa Claus' friends this year because advance reports lead to the belief that the need among the under-privileged children this year is equally as great as it was last year when more than $800 was raised in the Christmas fund.

URGES LIMIT ON SPECIAL SESSION

Governor McCray Beseeches Legis-

writing Reformatory Law

TO MAKE MEASURE WORKABLE

Regards it Most Fortunate That
State is Enabled to Find Customer
For State Institution

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 14.—Governor McCray asked the legislature today to limit its special session to the purpose for which it was called—the passage of the reformatory removal bill.

In his message to a joint session of the senate and house of representatives soon after they convened the governor said:

"I earnestly hope and respectfully ask that you will favor no other legislation at this time but will agree with me that all other matters, however seemingly important, should be delayed until the next regular session."

The bill which the legislature was convened to consider is in the form of an amendment to the present unworkable removal bill and provides:

1. That the reformatory shall be re-located at a "more central location" than Jeffersonville.

2. That the governor shall appoint a bi-partisan committee of four with the power of eminent domain to buy property for the institution and that an advisory committee shall be appointed.

3. That the trustees of the Jeffersonville reformatory shall supervise construction of the new building.

4. That $300,000 shall be appropriated for the purchase of a site and the erection of new buildings in addition to $450,101.01 which Colgate & Company paid for the present site and the unspent portion of appropriations made by the last legislature for repairs to the present institution. The appropriations total about $900,000.

The governor called the special session for the purpose of providing a way for giving Colgate & Company possession of the Jeffersonville reformatory after the present law had been pronounced unworkable. The assembly went into joint session shortly after ten o'clock to receive the message. It was the fourteenth special session in Indiana history.

Devoting his message entirely to the reformatory question, the governor declared that 75 percent of the inmates came from the section of the state north of Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Richmond and asked that

WILSON COUNSELS NO HASTY ACTION

Former President Urges Democratic Senators to do Nothing to Open
Them to Criticism

AGREEMENT CHRISTMAS SEEN

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Woodrow Wilson wants Democratic senators to do nothing which later would leave them open to the charge that they threw obstacles in the way of complete success of the disarmament conference, democratic senators have been informed.

He has not sent word to them of his opinion directly on the four-power Pacific treaty, but they have been informed that he thinks the treaty should be considered in the light of the acceptance of the conference and should never be condemned or endorsed until it is clear what measure of disarmament the conference will bring about.

The arms conference, the big Christmas gift to the world, will be a complete agreement on America's great program for limitation of naval armament, it was predicted in all quarters of the parley.

Police found Di Frenca within a few blocks of Palermo's home in which young Castelli was found on the same afternoon.

The maximum penalty for conviction on the charge is six months in the work house and $1,000 fine. The minimum is six months in the work-house and $500 fine.

TO SING CANTATA FROM MEMORY

This Performance Expected to be
Unusual Feature of All School
Concert Thursday

PROGRAM TO BEGIN AT 8.15

The girl's and boys' glee clubs of the Rushville high school will sing "The Mound Builders", an American Indian cantata of ninety-three pages, from memory, at the All School concert which will be given at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday evening. This is regarded as an unusual feat for singers of their age and experience, and it is expected that it will be a feature of the program.

The concert will not begin until 8.15 so as not to interfere with prayer meetings at local churches and to permit those attending to hear the concert.

Original Indian melodies form the themes of many of the numbers, the melodies being taken down by the composer, Paul Bliss, many years ago when he attended the rites and dances of many Indian tribes. The story is as follows:

At sun-up, the Indian braves start on a deer-hunting expedition. During their absence the women continue the mound-building. The become weary at noon and rest, watching an eagle in his flight. The deer-hunters return empty-handed and the women go down to the stream for water to refresh the weary warriors. During their absence the camp is attacked and then the foe attempts to capture the water carriers. They are driven off and the water-carriers return. As evening comes on, a wood pigeon is heard and then a flute, in a serenade which all sing as night falls.

BOXERS TO ARRIVE HERE TOMORROW NOON

Joe Melcher Announces Athletes Are All Fit For American Legion
Matches Thursday Night

A BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED

The half dozen boxers who will participate in the series of matches arranged for Thursday night at the Modern Appliance building, under the auspices of Rush post No. 150, of the American Legion, will arrive in Rushville tomorrow night in preparation for the event, it was announced today.

Joe Melcher of near New Salem, formerly of Anderson, stated today that all of the men were in first class shape and that three good matches might be expected by the fans who will attend. The ticket sale indicates that there will be a good sized crowd on hands to witness the athletic event the first of this character in Rushville for many years.

The main bout will be a ten-round go between Louis Lazelle and Jake Barnhardt of Terre Haute and the two preliminaries will be staged by Kid Banks of Muncie and Battling Dewey of Anderson, who will be in the ring for four rounds, and Packy McFarland and Joe Keisling of Anderson, who will be matched for six rounds.

members of the various committees to the merchants and all citizens who contributed in any manner toward the success of our Products Show recently held. We recommend that this show be made an annual event as the good derived from it is of great value to all concerned.

2. We heartily commend our County Agent, D. D. Ball, for his untiring efforts in behalf of the farmers of the county and recommend that all farmers make use of the services offered by him. The chance to consult with the best experts of the country through the office of the County Agent is one that no individual farmer working alone can have. The patient courteous treatment extended by our County Agent to all is highly appreciated.

3. We most heartily commend the work of our officials who have by their persistent efforts made our organization the grand success which it is today. They have placed our county federation in the front rank among the counties of the State and all farmers of the county whether members of this organization or not, have profited by their labors.

4. We endorse all worthy efforts to eliminate the expense incurred in delivering our products to the consumer. We do not condemn the necessary middleman, but we believe there is at present a useless waste of products and money in our present system.

5. We recommend a more careful scrutiny of all proposed expenditures by the State, County and Township officers, during our present readjustment period, to the end that the money raised by taxation may only be used for the necessary improvements, and when expenditure is made, we urge that they do their full duty in seeing to it that the public gets full value for each dollar expended.

6. We recommend that the chairman of each township Federation in this county appoint three representative farmers of his township to act as an advisory committee to advise with the township assessor in the re-assessment of real estate; we further recommend that these various township committees inform themselves upon their local conditions and give such information to the county assessor in order that the real estate of the county may be equitably assessed.

7. We endorse the movement to fight Tuberculosis and other diseases through the sale of Christmas Seals. The wealth of a community is largely determined by the health of that community and any and all agencies that contribute to the preservation of health are to be commended.

8. We extend our thanks to all who have contributed to the success of this meeting.

HARMONIOUS WITH LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Prime Minister of Sweden Says
Arms Conference Will Work Eventually With The League

FIRST TO VOICE OPINION

Asserts Success on One is in a Sense
Also a Success for The Other—
Says he is Pleased

(Copyright 1921 by United Press)
If President Harding issues a series of international conference they will merge eventually with the League of Nations to work toward the common objective of world peace Hjalmar Branting, prime minister of Sweden, declares in an article written for the United Press.
This is the first comment of its kind from the chief cabinet officer, of a League of Nations member on the achievements of the Washington conference.

By HJALMAR BRANTING,
Prime Minister of Sweden
Written Exclusively for the U. P.
Stockholm, Dec. 14.—We who belong to the League of Nations look upon President Harding's initiative as an action for the promotion of world peace parallel to the effort the League of Nations is making with the same object in view.

Success of one is therefore in a sense also a success for the other and if President Harding's initiative were to result in a series of conferences, then it can only be a question of time when a common form will be found for that common work.

Even those who did not look forward to the conference of the great powers at Washington with too eager expectation are bound to learn with all the more satisfaction of every progress made or seemingly about to be made by the conference toward closer cooperation and a better understanding among those world powers.

At the outset of the conference I dispatched a message to President Harding on behalf of the Swedish government expressing a sincere desire that the all important and far-reaching work of the conference be successful.

With regard to the question of reduction of armaments on the sea, there seems still to exist some uncertainty although the reported fact that the United States already has considerably reduced its various budget is a big step forward and the daring first initiative of Secretary of State Hughes certainly will not fail to have its effect on the coming decisions as it already has made a deep impression on the public mind all over the world.

Unfortunately the reduction of armaments on land appears to have been put aside on this occasion, but in that respect perhaps the firm attitude by the smaller nations within the League may have some results in the direction in which the opinion of the working masses of all countries great as well as small is moving with growing determination. We in Europe recently were reminded of this opinion by statements issued by the English Labor Party by the international Trade Union organization in Amsterdam and by the last conference board of the Second Internationale at Brussels.

TWO PARLIAMENTS TAKE UP COMPACT

Collins leader of the Sinn Fein army who signed the peace pact, leaped to the floor and cried:

"Some men call me traitor! I will meet them any time, anywhere, now as in the past!"

The Dail decided to hold a public session at 11 a. m. tomorrow to discuss the treaty openly. This decision was reached after it had been agreed to hold a preliminary secret meeting this morning.

It was during discussion on the motion to hold a secret session that the clash between De Valera, Collins and Arthur Griffith developed. De Valera began the argument by challenging the right of the peace delegates to have signed the London treaty. He contended the pact should have been sent to Dublin for final decision before it was signed.

"The delegates only were empowered to negotiate," he said.

In the midst of this argument, Griffith who also signed the London pact, jumped up and asked:

"Is there any suggestion that the delegates exceeded their instructions?"

74 TRIED ON ARSON CHARGE IN 5 YEARS

Records Compiled at Office of State Fire Marshal Show Sixty Eight Persons Were Convicted

INDIANA LEADS STATES

Attributes Record to Cooperation of Public Officials With Fire Marshal's Department

Indianapolis Ind., Dec. 14—Clipping the wings of the firebugs in Indiana has resulted in the conviction of nine out of every ten persons tried for arson in the Hoosier state for the past five years. Records compiled at the office of Newman T. Miller, state fire marshal, and announced today showed that during this five year period sixty-eight persons were convicted of arson out of seventy-four tried on that charge.

This record has placed Indiana at the head of states in arson prosecution. State Fire Marshal Miller attributes the record to the cooperation of public officials in all parts of the state with the fire marshal's department in the repression and trial of arson cases.

Three classes of firebug operated in Indiana, according to Mr. Miller. "The first and largest group are persons in business who apply the torch to collect insurance, particularly when they face failure", he said. "The second group are those who fire buildings for revenge and the third type are the persons who use fire to cover up crime."

"Indiana is fast becoming an 'arsonless' state."

"In 1915 the number of incendiary fires in the state reached 188 with an attending loss of $257,184, while last year the number dropped to 75 with a $134,599 loss ever with high property valuations in effect in 1920. Arson is rapidly becoming minimized and the continuous activities and cooperation of public officials and the state fire marshal's department will keep the situation on the path of decreased arson fires."

A greater part of the unusual record in making this state "firebugless" was due to the activities started when the present state fire marshal was attorney for the department. Last year he became head of the department and has been continuing the vigorous prosecution of arsnites. Mr. Miller has been to arson criminals what the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police have been to criminals in the northlands.

WAR TAX ON FARES IS REMOVED BY NEW LAW

Eight Percent Levy Paid by Passengers on Steam and Electric Lines Taken Off by Revenue Bill

TO BE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1

The eight percent tax on interurban and railroad passenger fares and the three percent tax on freight, express and baggage shipments, will be removed January 1, by the terms of the new federal revenue law recently passed by congress.

These obnoxious taxes were levied at the beginning of the war with Germany as a war measure, but had never been taken off until the new congress came into power and its first step was to revise the revenue law.

The removal of the taxes is expected to increase travel on both the steam lines and interurbans and will also increase the freight business it is believed.

Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, states that last year the I. & C. collected $39,786.75 from its patrons on behalf of the United States government and transmitted the money to Washington. Collections this year will be approximately the same, he says.

Inasmuch as much of the story of "The Woman God Changed" has to do with a tropical island, the company playing the various roles in this splendid Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture which will be displayed at the Princess theater today and Thursday, was carried to the Bahama Islands, off the coast of Florida on a specially chartered steamer where for two weeks, Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln, who are seen as castaways on an island were kept busy by Director Robert V. Vignola, his cameramen and assistants. The burning and sinking of a steamship following an explosion of ammunition, was faithfully pictured and the casualty (in the picture only) proved quite exciting. Other scenes, notable a remarkable cloud effect, were "shot" with excellent results. "The Woman God Changed" is a beautiful photoplay and fully up to the high standard set by Paramount.

The prosecutor stated that the same Frank Hutson was arrested for driving his machine without lights, and pleaded guilty to the charge this week in Justice Stech's court.

C. W. Duncan, attorney for the defendant, stated that the evidence would probably show that there were several machines stopping at frequent intervals in front of the Lawson residence, but on account of the railroad, it made it necessary for machines to stop in front of the house, even if the occupants were visiting at some of the neighboring houses.

He stated that the facts presented by Prosecutor Stevens were greatly exaggerated, and that the evidence would contradict his statements. He said that the defendant is afflicted and that she could not have conducted the alleged traffic, with which she is charged.

Help Santa Claus Along

Good old Santa Claus will soon be shaking hands with us again. He never passes this town by in his annual trips—and we trust he never passes by any person in the town or community.

But to be sure that every one will be remembered on Christmas day it would be well for us to look around a bit. There may be some one who has been hit more than we realize by the business depression under which we have been laboring.

If there is such a person, or such a family, our greatest joy should be in remembering those who are without the means to remember themselves. The ideal way is to contribute to the Daily Republican—Salvation Army Santa Claus Fund which is organized to distribute Christmas cheer.

Repeat the golden rule for inspiration.

A Greater Menace

High up in the air there is a powerful current blowing from Japan toward this county which, with the aid of a motor, would drive an aeroplane from that country to our western coast in about fifteen minutes. Eddie Rickenbacker, king of American aces, is authority for this statement.

Consider the possibilities.

Japan could assemble a fleet of fifty or a hundred bombing planes and start them out wavy. Within fifteen hours they would be at San Francisco. A few hours later they could be hovering over every city in the United States, ready to blot them out dropping tons of high explosives.

Is this possibility worth a passing thought?

Wouldn't it be well to worry less over obsolete battleships and give more attention to the greater menace?

Assigning United States marines to guard registered mail pouches was an excellent move. Your money is much safer in transit now. By the time the marines have killed off a few more bandits they may conclude that the government poker has a hot end.

Beware of the stranger who effusively offers you his hand. He wants you to put something in it.

It may be true that the late war has many lessons to teach, but school is not in session.

A really brave man seldom offers excuses. Facts are sufficient warrant for his action.

A man should never refer to his wife as the "old woman." It gives away his own age.

AMERICAN MAY JOIN NATIONAL

Second Major League Likely to Erect Second Barrier to Compel Minor's Consent to Draft

THREAT FROM CLASS AA CLUBS

Can't Choke 'Em to Death Without Three More Major Leagues Springing up, They Assert

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 14.—With the National League foot on their throats those rebellious Minors may get the pressure of another choking from the American League today. The National League in a "hangover" meeting today is expected to fasten the last strand of a barbed wire barricade within which the class A and the class A minor leagues will be starved to death if they do not consent to the draft.

In the first session of its annual meeting the American League may decide to erect a second barrier for the same purpose.

The idea proposed late yesterday at the National League meeting by Charles Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club was for the majors to refuse to buy or sell to the anti draft leagues until they agree to allow the majors to draft their stars for $5,000 instead of taking them off the auction block for $75,000 or such.

"Let 'em do it. That's just what we want", Jack Dunn, boss of the Baltimore International League champions said today.

"If they do it there will be three more major leagues in five years. American association magnates have agreed with the Baltimore leader".

Outside the draft controversy the clans gathered for the American League meeting were wondering—"what'll they do about Babe Ruth?"

Some trades are expected when the American League moguls are gathered.

Jim Dunn Cleveland is openly in the market for pitchers. The Yanks are out for a pitcher and two outfielders. Practically every club wants something.

Announcement is expected today that Claude Millan will manage the Washington Senators next season.

AGREES TO MEET CHAMP

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 14.—Bryan Downey, Columbus middle weight has agreed to meet Champion Johnny Wilson in a return bout to be staged in Columbus. If the match is arranged Downey announced he would donate his end of the purse to charity. Wilson has been wired asking his terms for the match.

LOSE CLOSE ONE TO SHELBYVILLE

Odd Fellows Independent Basketball Team Holds Lead Early in Game But is Headed

KEEN RIVALRY IN CONTEST

Locals Weaken in Efforts to Penetrate Visitors' Defense—Star Player Well Guarded

The Odd Fellows lost a close and hard fought basketball game here last night, when the Shelbyville Independents won out by a 27 to 21 count, after the two teams had played on even terms from beginning to end. The game was the first of a three game series and the locals expect to annex the next game which will be played at Shelbyville in a few weeks.

Shelbyville presented a strong line-up, with Richeson at forward, but he was guarded closely throughout the game, and managed to break away only twice for field goals. He threw five out of ten foul goals.

Rushville used several substitutes toward the end of the game in an effort to even up the count, but Shelbyville managed to keep a few points ahead, and the locals could not catch up.

Richeson scored first for Shelbyville with a foul, and then Shaw counted for Rushville with a field goal. The score for the first ten minutes of play stood 2 to 2, and finally the locals broke away and took a lead, at one time having eight points to the visitors' three.

Shelby soon forged through the locals' defense and shortly before the half ended the count was tied at eight points. Hack for the visitors registered a couple of field goals that put his team in the lead, and from this time on the locals could not recover.

The score at the half way mark was 16 to 12 with Rushville trailing, and in the second half the two teams fought hard for their points, with Shelbyville scoring first with a field goal by Briggs.

Hill replaced Tittsworth at forward, and soon connected for a basket, and Royalty, back guard for Rushville, counted on four fouls out of five chances during the last half, but Shelbyville came across with five field goals that gave them the few point advantage that won the game.

Probably no game has been played here this year which created as much interest, and the locals displayed good basketball, but weakened at places in taking the ball through the defense of Shelbyville.

On Saturday night the Odd Fellows will play the Connorsville Reserves in that city, having defeated this team here two weeks ago. Next Tuesday night the Fairview team will come here for a tilt with the Odd Fellows.

The curtain raiser last night was played between the Christian and Methodist Sunday school teams, with the Methodist team coming out victors, 34 to 4.

WILL APPEAL FOR AID IN BIBLE LANDS

Near East Relief Will Make Special
Effort For Orphans in Stricken
Areas at Christmas Time

$5 A MONTH KEEPS ONE CHILD

Near East Relief in behalf of thousands of children in the Bible Lands of Asia Minor who look to America as their only friend, will again appeal to the clergy, the church and the Sunday school to remember the stricken orphans at Christmas time.

Every Sunday School in Indiana, every church and every fraternal organization as well as individuals, are asked to remember the stricken children of Armenia in the Christmas donations. Here is the appeal: "And they laid Him in a manger because there was no room for Him in the inn. Today there are 100,000 children in the lands where Christ was born gathered by Near East Relief into orphanages and homes and another hundred thousand for whom there is no room—anywhere. In the memory of the Christ child will you not provide shelter for one of His little ones of this His birthday?"

The relief organization asks that every Sunday School in Indiana "adopt" orphans. Five dollars a month keeps the child alive. The relief committee asserts that the need of the orphans of the Bible lands is the most critical since the world war. Governor Warren T. McCray, honorary chairman, and Ed Jackson active chairman, will join in the Christmas appeal.

Thomas C. Day, 403 City Trust Building, Indianapolis, will receive contributions for the orphans.

SENDS LETTER TO WOMEN

Chairman Declares Christmas Seal is Means of Carrying Strong
Defences by Way of Education

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 13—Reminding them that the Indiana and the National Federation of Women's Clubs have pledged themselves to help in the fight against tuberculosis, Mrs. Ella Bagot Kehrre, of this city, is appealing to Indiana clubwomen to boost the Christmas Seal Sale. Mrs. Kehrre, who is active in the work in Madison County, is chairman of the public health committee of the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs. In her letter to the clubwomen of the State, she says: "It is unnecessary to tell a group of dependable, competent and alert clubwomen to forward all the better things of life, to improve present conditions and to save the homes. They already know how necessary it is to co-operate with all organizations and to work together for the benefit of humanity and future citizenship. The shortage of work for men and women, the high prices for food and clothing, makes comfortable living conditions impossible for a great many families, resulting in under-nourished and anemic children and opens the way for all kinds of diseases, more especially tuberculosis.

"The Christmas seal is the means of carrying on strong defense by way of education, clinics, nurses literature, open window rooms, open-air schools, open-air cottages and sleeping porches. It assists in placing in each school scales for weighing and measuring; one quart of milk for each child, hot lunches, including soup; nutrition clinics, and common sense prevention. It is also instrumental in the development of the Modern Health Crusade; a plan

ATWOOD BLACKSMITH IDENTIFIES PRINTS

Wesley Orcutt Shoer of Fred Decker's Horse, Says Prints Along Railroad Corresponded

ALSO VISITED THE COTTAGE

(By United Press)
Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 14.—The village blacksmith of Atwood testified for the defense Tuesday, forging a few links in the chain of circumstances by which the state is seeking to convict Fred Decker of an insurance murder plot in connection with the death of Leroy Lovett.

Wesley Orcutt who used to shoe Fred Decker's horses, testified that Fred's horse had been hitched to the buggy which straddled the Pennsylvania railroad track near Atwood and near which Lovett's body had been placed to give the murder the scene of an accident. Orcutt said he knew Fred's horse by the imprints of the shoe on the roadside. He also told of a visit to the murder cabin on Fred's farm where Lovett's head was beaten in with a heavy iron bar. The cottage, he said, was in disorder with the stove pipe on the floor and other evidence of a struggle.

The defense also brought forth Fred Decker's eleven-year-old daughter Ruth and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Cal Decker in an effort to free Fred of the charge of conspiring with his two brothers and mother to collect $24,000 life insurance Virgil Decker carried by falsely identifying the body as that of Lovett.

Ruth gave evidence to offset that introduced previously by the state which tended to show Decker had plotted first to murder Fred Lovett, the younger brother of Leroy.

EXPECT FAST PACE IN ARMS CONFERENCE

Important Matters That May Clear up The Program, Probable Before the Week End

SLIGHT CHANGES POSSIBLE

Washington, Dec. 14.—More lightning-like developments of far-reaching importance are expected in the arms conference within the next few days. Although a complete and official agreement has not yet been reached on the ratio question and other vital features of the Hughes limitation of armament program the extraordinary air of optimism prevalent for the last few days continues and the belief is that the conference program will be well cleared up before the end of the week. Today the quadruple Pacific treaty will be formally signed as the result of the sudden announcement yesterday of a complete agreement between the U. S. and Japan. The big three will meet again on the naval ratio. It appeared today a meeting was under way to change the Hughes program so that more older battleships would be kept. Collapse of effective ones or those virtually complete would be kept. Collapse of effective opposition in the senate to the Pacific treaty was seen today and President Harding may submit the pact for ratification earlier than was expected.

"I'm feeling like a new man since Tanlae soothed and toned up my stomach and for the first time in forty years can eat a hearty meal and suffer no distress afterwards," was the remarkable statement of Patrick J. Haley, 107 Prospect Ave., Syracuse, N. Y., a well-known iron and steel worker:

"Only those who have had stomach trouble in a bad form can know what I suffered during all those years. I was almost a nervous wreck, too, and for years I didn't know what it was to get a good sound sleep at night.

"I got new life and energy from each dose of Tanlae and now I'm a well and happy man instead of a sick and miserable one as I was for so many years. I'll vouch for the merit of Tanlae at any time."

Tanlae is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

THIN, FLAT HAIR
GROWS LONG, THICK
AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl five years old. I would like to have a doll with curly hair, house slippers and a little set of dishes and don't forget to bring me some candy, nuts and oranges for Christmas. Please don't forget my sister Katherine and papa and mamma.

Your little friend,
HAZEL MAE MARSHALL.

1,750,000 of these lenses on motor cars everywhere

Because they are lawful in every state, and because they provide such an abundant flood of clear, properly direct driving light, thousands of Macbeth and Liberty lenses are used by motorists everywhere.

Every test has proved them the most satisfactory headlight lenses made. Put them on your car and you'll find night driving no longer a menace to safety, but a safe and enjoyable experience.

Take the normal focus

Some lawful lenses require a special focus adjustment of bulb and reflector which only lighting engineers can obtain. Macbeth and Liberty lenses take the normal "No. 1" focus, which you can find in five minutes by following simple directions furnished with the lenses. Don't take a chance of trouble with other headlight lenses!

An efficient driving light

Macbeth and Liberty lenses, made by an authority in glass making and fine lens manufacture, are the most efficient headlight lenses on the market.

Equip your car or truck with either type and you will enjoy a clear, properly-directed, non-glaring light. And no matter where you tour, Macbeth and Liberty lenses comply with the law.

Painted lenses not safe

Painted lenses look cheap even when new. Soon the paint will chip or wear off, making your lenses unlawful. The green in the Macbeth Green Visor lens is a fused color, and cannot wear, wash, chip, or fade.

Put Macbeth or Liberty lenses on your car today. Get them while your dealer still has them in stock.

"A lens which requires 32 candlepower bulbs destroys a lot of light. Macbeth and Liberty Lenses give five times as much light, with 21 candlepower bulbs—as the State requires. Avoid 32 candlepower bulbs, as they are hard on batteries."

AMUSEMENTS

"Singing River" at Mystic

"Bill" Russell puts a bagful of "pep" in his latest William Fox western story, "Singing River", which will be seen at the Mystic today.

Russell begins his fighting for law and order alone, but gets a pal and together they do some fine work in getting rid of the crooks, although it cannot be said that they have an easy time of it—especially Russel, who believes for a time that the trusted pal has been false. Vola Vale, as leading woman, does her part bravely and helps Russell set things right.

Beside Miss Vale, Russell is supported by Clark Comstock, Jack Roseleigh, Arthur Morrison, Jack McDonald, Jack Hull, Louis King and Charles King. All help to make the play most entertaining and colorful.

Jules G. Furlman has written a clever scenario for the play, and Charles Giblyn has staged it with some very impressive scenic effects.

PRIMARY PERFORMS

The Primary department of Webb's school, southwest of Rushville, presented an entertainment, "A Trip to Story Land", at the building Tuesday night. The program consisted of musical numbers and was arranged by Miss Margaret Mahin, teacher of the primary department, assisted by Miss Talbert. About forty pupils in the first and second grade took part.

URGES LIMIT ON SPECIAL SESSION

the new reformatory be located more centrally.

"I consider it a most fortunate circumstance that we were able to find a customer for a piece of property that ordinarily would attract few buyers and at the same time acquire such a valuable industrial asset for the state as we do when the corporation of Colgate & Company becomes established," the governor said after reviewing the negotiations with the cosmetic manufacturers.

"I am reliably informed that the location of Colgate & Company in Indiana will assure the location of other important industries in that locality. I am therefore asking your favorable action on the impending bill as it is an important step in a business transaction in which the states' best interests, good faith and honor are involved."

In passing the removal bill during the 1921 regular session, the legislature failed to make adequate provision for replacing the reformatory, but this defect was not discovered until the site had been sold. The present law provided that the reformatory be combined with the state penal farm in Putnam county but the governor said this proposal was found to be impracticable.

According to stories circulating in fistic circles, Jack Britton may retire from the ring an undefeated welterweight champion.

WOMAN ON TRIAL IN CIRCUIT COURT

State Outlines What it Expects to Prove Against Elizabeth Lawson
at Opening of Case

HOUSE OF ILL FAME, CHARGE

Jury Fails to Return Verdict in
Trial of William Sumnam for
Illegal Sale of Liquor

Another state case was being heard today in the circuit court by a jury, the case today being with Elizabeth Lawson as defendant, charged with keeping a house of ill repute.

The jury which heard the case yesterday of the State against William Sumnam, charged with unlawfully selling liquor, failed to reach a verdict and was discharged about ten o'clock last night.

The jury got the case at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, and it was said that they were divided equally as to a verdict, which resulted in them being discharged without returning a verdict. Three other cases are pending against the defendant.

The case today was attracting considerable interest, as the alleged house of ill fame is located at 217 West Sixth street in the more select residential district. Over 20 witnesses in the vicinity were summoned as witnesses for the state.

Prosecutor Stevens in his opening remarks to the jury stated that the state would prove that the defendant associated with men of questionable character, who were seen entering and leaving the house by neighbors, and the state's attorney mentioned over a long list of men, whom he said were men of bad character.

The list mentioned the name of "Chuck" Taylor who only recently had his parole revoked and is in prison; the name of George Allen, an alleged bootlegger of Alpine, who was given a suspended sentence by Judge Sparks, upon condition that he keep away from Rushville, but the sentence was revoked when he was noticed visiting "the alleged house of ill fame," after the court's order was violated.

The prosecutor also cited several Rushville young men who had been seen at the place, and he mentioned the fact that when the house was raided shortly before the arrest, two men were found in the house, "partly liquored."

The prosecutor laid stress on the fact that the police had been called

Blanche Alsman is plaintiff in the divorce suit filed against Thomas O. Alsman. The complaint alleging cruel treatment, and that the defendant has threatened her. A petition for a restraining order accompanied the suit, and the court ordered the defendant to restrain from visiting or molesting the plaintiff until the matter can be heard in court on December 17.

HOUSE VOTES TO SUPPORT M'CRAY

Rapid Developments Today Indicate
Special Session of Legislature
Will Meet His Request

BILL IS PLACED ON PASSAGE

House on Record as Favoring Suspension of Rules And Senate Will Follow Suit

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 14.—Rapid developments in the special legislature, convened here today, indicated the session will be limited to consideration of the reformatory removal measure, for which it was called.

The house of representatives voted 80 to 12 to support the recommendations of Governor McCray voiced in his special message to the house and senate "respectfully asking" them to curb their activities.

The vote came on a motion to suspend the constitutional rule which requires the bill be read on three separate days and the reformatory bill was placed on passage.

Senator Duncan of Cloverdale, chairman of the senate finance committee, indicated the upper branch would take similar action with regard to the reformatory wherein he also said his committee would refuse to consider the soldier bonus measure.

The bonus question was considered the strongest weapon of the insurgent forces in their efforts to prolong the session. Leaders of the veterans of the foreign war besieged the legislators before the opening with the request for a bonus of $10 a month for ex-service men and women for each month they served or that alternatives be paid educational tuition.

Both houses were called to order shortly after ten o'clock. Claude Smith of Princeton was named speaker of the house by a vote of 82 to 10. The ten negative votes were cast by the democratic minority who favored R. W. Barker of Posey county, democratic floor leader.

Senator Douglas of Flatrock was in his seat although he has not resigned as a member of the public service commission. Senator Duncan who was also on the job, had not resigned as head of the teachers' pension board.

Bitter Clash Between De Valera and
Collins When Former Says De-

By ED L. KEEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
London, Dec. 14.—In a gorgeous setting the British Parliament opened today to hear the speech of his majesty King George and vote on the Anglo-Irish treaty.

The brilliant court of St. James was assembled at Westminster in a scene of kingly grandeur to take part in what seemed to amount to a celebration of the inauguration of the prospective Irish free state.

"It was with heartfelt joy that I learned an agreement had been reached, after many months," the king said.

"It has affected not only the welfare of Ireland, but the British and Irish races throughout the world."

"It is my earnest hope that by the articles of this agreement now submitted to you the strife of centuries may be ended and Ireland as a free partner in the commonwealth of nations forming the British empire, will secure fulfillment of her national ideals."

The speech was very brief, submitting the treaty for ratification.

After the address Parliament adjourned until 3 p. m. according to custom. It will assemble at that time to discuss the peace pact and hear the speech of Premier Lloyd George.

The indication was Premier Lloyd George would advance this other business when he speaks this afternoon.

The scene was the most brilliant of the present reign.

It was an occasion of grandeur, gorgeous uniforms, brilliant robes, coronets, flashing insignia, peeresses, wondrous shimmering jewels and lavish court gowns.

His majesty left the palace in the famous state coach drawn by eight horses escorted by gold spangled footmen and escorts. A detachment of heralds cleared the line of march for the regal procession. Scarlet clad guards kept the crowds jammed on the pavements.

Dublin, Dec. 14.—A bitter clash between Eamon De Valera and Michael Collins marked the opening of the Dail Eirreann to consider the Anglo-Irish peace today.

"The Irish peace delegates at London exceeded their instructions," De Valera charged.

JOHN C. HOKEY IS SENT TO JAIL TODAY

Former I. & C. Ticket Agent, Arrested Year Ago For Embezzle-
ment Brought to Court

MISTREATING WIFE, CHARGE

John C. Hokey appeared before Judge Sparks this afternoon about three o'clock, being ordered to report on a charge upon which he was arrested over a year ago, on December 8, 1920, in connection with the alleged theft of money from the I. & C. ticket office, where he was an agent, and he entered a plea of guilty this afternoon to the charge.

He is charged with embezzlement and grand larceny, and about a year ago he was released from jail on bond, never having been arraigned. Judge Sparks this afternoon did not have time to take the case up, and the matter will be disposed of tomorrow.

The defendant went to jail upon default of $2,000 bond. It is understood that as long as the defendant behaved himself the matter would complaints have reached the court, that he has been mistreating his wife, and Sheriff Jones was ordered to produce him in court immediately.

Resolutions Adopted by Rush County
Farmers Association Recommend
Township Advisory Committees

TO WORK WITH THE ASSESSOR

Fred Bell is Re-elected President
For Third Successive Term at
Closing Session—Others Named

A proposal that the chairman of each township association of farmers appoint three representative farmers of his township to act as an advisory committee to advise with the township assessor in the reassessment of real estate in 1922, was incorporated in the resolutions which were unanimously adopted at the closing session of the annual convention of the Rush County Farmers association at the Graham Annex auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

As a part of the closing business, the association also named officers for the coming year, re-electing Fred Bell as county president for the third successive term. The selection of Mr. Bell again is regarded as a testimonial to the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the association. Mr. Bell has been president of the association since its inception and has been so enthusiastic in his devotion to the interests of the organization, that the members would not consent for him to retire.

Harry McMillin of Union township was elected vice-president to succeed Charles Pencer of Richland township. Jesse Peters of Union township was re-elected treasurer.

In addition to suggesting the innovation in assessing real estate, the resolutions also commended the officers of the association for their interest in it, commended the work of the county agent, expressed the thanks of the association for all of the agencies which assisted in making the Rush County Products Show a success, endorsed all efforts to eliminate the expense of delivering farm produce to the consumer, recommended care in the conduct of public business with a view of reducing expenses and endorse the Christmas seals campaign.

The resolution committee made the following report which was adopted.

1. Resolved that this federation hereby express its thanks to our energetic County Agent, and to the

NATIONAL GUARD TO OPPOSE AMAZON ARMY

Kansas Troops Mobilized to Take
Field Against Women Who Are

MINERS MADE TO TAKE OATH

Topeka, Kansas, Dec. 14.—National guard troops were mobilized to take the field in southern Kansas coal mine country against the "Amazon army." The troops gathered at their armory preparatory to entrain nearly one thousand strong as 3,000 wives, daughters, sweethearts and sisters of striking rump miners, lead by a band and flying flags swept south from Franklin, red center, to invade the Lewis administration forces.

In a very picturesque formation the women of the coal fields, each section commanded by a general, rushed on. Some women carried babies, some led their children, others turned them over to the men who stood to one side and encouraged the women to continue their march on the mines where the miners work.

After the top of the mine was cleared, the women swarmed into the pit, seized the miners, brought them to the surface and beat them. The miners were forced to kneel. A huge American flag was unfurled. The women commanded them to kiss the flag and take the oath never to work into the southern Kansas until ordered to do so by Alexander Howatt. They kissed the flag and took the oath.

At the annual election of officers by the Kiwanis club at the regular weekly luncheon, held in the basement of the First Baptist church, the old officers, who have not yet served a full year, were elected unanimously.

Dr. J. M. Lee of this city and Dr. H. G. Metcalf of New Salem were guests. The dinner was served by the Ladies Aid society of the church.

The election resulted as follows: Samuel L. Trabue, president; George Y. Hogsett, vice-president; William A. Young, secretary; Lewis M. Sexton, treasurer; J. T. Arbuckle, district trustee and C. L. Bebout, Fred M. Hammer, Harry Kramer, Byron Cowing, Charles S. Green, Wilmer V. Brown and Fred G. Arbuckle members of the board of directors.

The Daily Republican-Salvation Army Santa Claus fund today made a wonderful advance—larger than any single day during the campaign thus far, but there are still many friends of old Kris Kingle who are always found in the list of contributors, that have not responded to the appeal yet.

Almost as much was added today—$141.63—as had been contributed before today, due to the gift of $122 by the members of the Rushville Rotary club. This, together with $100 from the Elks lodge, accounts for most of the fund to date, which is evidence enough that the many contributors who usually help swell the fund, have not yet felt the urge of Santa Claus and have not yet realized that many little folks in Rushville will go Christmasless without their aid.

Several thoughtful little folks have already come forward and added their bit to the sum which will go towards providing gifts for children less fortunate than they. It is believed that there are many more like them who will eventually dig into their little banks and take out a liberal share of their savings for the little unfortunates.

The Salvation Army kettle is still doing valiant duty on the streets, adding a sum close to $6.00 each day. As Christmas approaches, the daily offering of the kettle will increase, it is believed. At least this has been the experience in former years.

There is no occasion for slacking on the part of Santa Claus' friends this year because advance reports lead to the belief that the need among the underprivileged children this year is equally as great as it was last year when more than $900 was raised in the Christmas fund.

TO MAKE MEASURE WORKABLE

Regards it Most Fortunate That
State is Enabled to Find Customer
For State Institution

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 14.—Governor McCray asked the legislature today to limit its special session to the purpose for which it was called—the passage of the reformatory removal bill.

In his message to a joint session of the senate and house of representatives soon after they convened the governor said:

"I earnestly hope and respectfully ask that you will favor no other legislation at this time but will agree with me that all other matters, however seemingly important, should be delayed until the next regular session."

The bill which the legislature was convened to consider is in the form of an amendment to the present unworkable removal bill and provides:

1. That the reformatory shall be re-located at a "more central location" than Jeffersonville.

2. That the governor shall appoint a bi-partisan committee of four with the power of eminent domain to buy property for the institution and that an advisory committee shall be appointed.

3. That the trustees of the Jeffersonville reformatory shall supervise construction of the new building.

4. That $300,000 shall be appropriated for the purchase of a site and the erection of new buildings in addition to $450,101.01 which Colgate & Company paid for the present site and the unspent portion of appropriations made by the last legislature for repairs to the present institution. The appropriations total about $900,000.

The governor called the special session for the purpose of providing a way for giving Colgate & Company possession of the Jeffersonville reformatory after the present law had been pronounced unworkable. The assembly went into joint session shortly after ten o'clock to receive the message. It was the fourteenth special session in Indiana history.

Devoting his message entirely to the reformatory question, the governor declared that 75 percent of the inmates came from the section of the state north of Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Richmond and asked that

AGREEMENT CHRISTMAS SEEN

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Woodrow Wilson wants Democratic senators to do nothing which later would leave them open to the charge that they threw obstacles in the way of complete success of the disarmament conference, democratic senators have been informed.

He has not sent word to them of his opinion directly on the four-power Pacific treaty, but they have been informed that he thinks the treaty should be considered in the light of the acceptance of the conference and should never be condemned or endorsed until it is clear what measure of disarmament the conference will bring about.

The arms conference, the bi-Christmas gift to the world, will be a complete agreement on America's great program for limitation of naval armament, it was predicted in all quarters of the parley.

Police found Di Frenca within a few blocks of Palermo's home in which young Castelli was found on the same afternoon.

The maximum penalty for conviction on the charge is six months in the work house and $1,000 fine. The minimum is six months in the work-house and $500 fine.

TO SING CANTATA FROM MEMORY

This Performance Expected to be
Unusual Feature of All School
Concert Thursday

PROGRAM TO BEGIN AT 8.15

The girls and boys' glee clubs of the Rushville high school will sing "The Mound Builders", an American Indian cantata of ninety-three pages, from memory, at the All School concert which will be given at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday evening. This is regarded as an unusual feat for singers of their age and experience, and it is expected that it will be a feature of the program.

The concert will not begin until 8.15 so as not to interfere with prayer meetings at local churches and to permit those attending to begin the concert.

Original Indian melodies form the themes of many of the numbers; the melodies being taken down by the composer, Paul Bliss, many years ago when he attended the rites and dances of many Indian tribes. The story is as follows:

At sun-up, the Indian braves start on a deer-hunting expedition. During their absence the women continue the mound-building. The become weary at noon and rest, watching an eagle in his flight. The deer-hunters return empty-handed and the women go down to the stream for water to refresh the weary warriors. During their absence the camp is attacked and then the foe attempts to capture the water carriers. They are driven off and the water-carriers return. As evening comes on, a wood pigeon is heard and then a flute, in a serenade which all sing as night falls.

A BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED

The half dozen boxers who will participate in the series of matches arranged for Thursday night at the Modern Appliance building, under the auspices of Rush post No. 150, of the American Legion, will arrive in Rushville tomorrow night in preparation for the event, it was announced today.

Joe Melcher of near New Salem, formerly of Anderson, stated today that all of the men were in first class shape and that three good matches might be expected by the fans who will attend. The ticket sale indicates that there will be a good sized crowd on hands to witness the athletic event the first of this character in Rushville for many years.

The main bout will be a ten-round bout between Louis Lazelle and Jake Barnhardt of Terre Haute and the two preliminaries will be staged by Kid Banks of Muncie and Battling Dewey of Anderson, who will be in the ring for four rounds, and Paeky McFarland and Joe Keisling of Anderson, who will be matched for six rounds.

members of the various committees to the merchants and all citizens who contributed in any manner toward the success of our Products Show recently held. We recommend that this show be made an annual event as the good derived from it is of great value to all concerned.

2. We heartily commend our County Agent, D. D. Ball, for his untiring efforts in behalf of the farmers of the county and recommend that all farmers make use of the services offered by him. The chance to consult with the best experts of the country through the office of the County Agent is one that no individual farmer working alone can have. The patient courteous treatment extended by our County Agent to all is highly appreciated.

3. We most heartily commend the work of our officials who have by their persistent efforts made our organization the grand success which it is today. They have placed our county federation in the front rank among the counties of the State and all farmers of the county whether members of this organization or not, have profited by their labors.

4. We endorse all worthy efforts to eliminate the expense incurred in delivering our products to the consumer. We do not condemn the necessary middleman, but we believe there is at present a useless waste of products and money in our present system.

5. We recommend a more careful scrutiny of all proposed expenditures by the State, County and Township officers, during our present readjustment period, to the end and that the money raised by taxation may only be used for the necessary improvements, and when expenditure is made, we urge that they do their full duty in seeing to it that the public gets full value for each dollar expended.

6. We recommend that the chairman of each township Federation in this county appoint three representative farmers of his township to act as an advisory committee to advise with the township assessor in the re-assessment of real estate; we further recommend that these various township committees inform themselves upon their local conditions and give such information to the county assessor in order that the real estate of the county may be equitably assessed.

7. We endorse the movement to fight Tuberculosis and other diseases through the sale of Christmas Seals. The wealth of a community is largely determined by the health of that community and any and all agencies that contribute to the preservation of health are to be commended.

8. We extend our thanks to all who have contributed to the success of this meeting.

HARMONIOUS WITH LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Prime Minister of Sweden Says
Arms Conference Will Work Eventually With The League

FIRST TO VOICE OPINION

Asserts Success on One is in a Sense
Also a Success for The Other—
Says he is Pleased

(Copyright 1921 by United Press)

If President Harding issues a series of international conference they will merge eventually with the League of Nations to work toward the common objective of world peace Hjalmar Branting, prime minister of Sweden, declares in an article written for the United Press.

This is the first comment of its kind from the chief cabinet officer, of a League of Nations member on the achievements of the Washington conference.

By HJALMAR BRANTING,
Prime Minister of Sweden
Written Exclusively for the U. P.
Stockholm, Dec. 14.—We who belong to the League of Nations look upon President Harding's initiative as an action for the promotion of world peace parallel to the effort the League of Nations is making with the same object in view.

Success of one is therefore in a sense also a success for the other and if President Harding's initiative were to result in a series of conferences, then it can only be a question of time when a common form will be found for that common work.

Even those who did not look forward to the conference of the great powers at Washington with too eager expectation are bound to learn with all the more satisfaction of every progress made or seemingly about to be made by the conference toward closer cooperation and a better understanding among those world powers.

At the outset of the conference I dispatched a message to President Harding on behalf of the Swedish government expressing a sincere desire that the all important and far-reaching work of the conference be successful.

With regard to the question of reduction of armaments on the sea, there seems still to exist some uncertainty although the reported fact that the United States already has considerably reduced its various budget is a big step forward and the daring first initiative of Secretary of State Hughes certainly will not fail to have its effect on the coming decisions as it already has made a deep impression on the public mind all over the world.

Unfortunately the reduction of armaments on land appears to have been put aside on this occasion, but in that respect perhaps the firm attitude by the smaller nations within the League may have some results in the direction in which the world of the working masses of all countries great as well as small is moving with growing determination. We in Europe recently were reminded of this opinion by statements issued by the English Labor Party by the international Trade Union organization in Amsterdam and by the last conference board of the Second Internationale at Brussels.

TWO PARLIAMENTS TAKE UP COMPACT

Collins leader of the Sinn Fein army who signed the peace pact, leaped to the floor and cried:

"Some men call me traitor! I will meet them any time, anywhere, now as in the past!"

The Dail decided to hold a public session at 11 a. m. tomorrow to discuss the treaty openly. This decision was reached after it had been agreed to hold a preliminary secret meeting this morning.

It was during discussion on the motion to hold a secret session that the clash between De Valera, Collins and Arthur Griffith developed. De Valera began the argument by challenging the right of the peace delegates to have signed the London treaty. He contended the pact should have been sent to Dublin for final decision before it was signed.

"The delegates only were empowered to negotiate," he said.

In the midst of this argument, Griffith who also signed the London pact, jumped up and asked:

"Is there any suggestion that the delegates exceeded their instructions?"

74 TRIED ON ARSON CHARGE IN 5 YEARS

Records Compiled at Office of State Fire Marshal Show Sixty Eight Persons Were Convicted

INDIANA LEADS STATES

Attributes Record to Cooperation of Public Officials With Fire Marshal's Department

Indianapolis Ind., Dec. 14—Clipping the wings of the firebugs in Indiana has resulted in the conviction of nine out of every ten persons tried for arson in the Hoosier state for the past five years. Records compiled at the office of Newnan T. Miller, state fire marshal, and announced today showed that during this five year period sixty-eight persons were convicted of arson out of seventy-four tried on that charge.

This record has placed Indiana at the head of states in arson prosecution. State Fire Marshal Miller attributes the record to the cooperation of public officials in all parts of the state with the fire marshal's department in the reparation and trial of arson cases.

Three classes of firebug operated in Indiana, according to Mr. Miller. "The first and largest group are persons in business who apply the torch to collect insurance, particularly when they face failure," he said. "The second group are those who fire buildings for revenge and the third type are the persons who use fire to cover up crime."

"Indiana is fast becoming and 'arsonless' state."

"In 1915 the number of incendiary fires in the state reached 188 with an attending loss of $257,184, while last year the number dropped to 75 with a $134,599 loss ever with high property valuations in effect in 1920. Arson is rapidly becoming minimized and the continuous activities and cooperation of public officials and the state fire marshal's department will keep the situation on the path of decreased arson fires."

A greater part of the unusual record in making this state "firebugless" was due to the activities started when the present state fire marshal was attorney for the department. Last year he became head of the department and has been continuing the vigorous prosecution of arsonists. Mr. Miller has been to arson criminals what the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police have been to criminals in the northlands.

WAR TAX ON FARES IS REMOVED BY NEW LAW

Eight Percent Levy Paid by Passengers on Steam and Electric Lines Taken Off by Revenue Bill

TO BE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1

The eight percent tax on interurban and railroad passenger fares and the three percent tax on freight, express and baggage shipments, will be removed January 1, by the terms of the new federal revenue law recently passed by congress.

These obnoxious taxes were levied at the beginning of the war with Germany as a war measure, but had never been taken off until the new congress came into power and its first step was to revise the revenue law.

The removal of the taxes is expected to increase travel on both the steam lines and interurbans and will also increase the freight business it is believed.

Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, states that last year the I. & C. collected $39,786.75 from its patrons on behalf of the United States government and transmitted the money to Washington. Collections this year will be approximately the same, he says.

AMUSEMENTS

Was Filmed in Tropics

Inasmuch as much of the story of "The Woman God Changed" has to do with a tropical island, the company playing the various roles in this splendid Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture which will be displayed at the Princess theater today and Thursday, was carried to the Bahama Islands, off the coast of Florida on a specially chartered steamer where for two weeks, Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln, who are seen as castaways on an island were kept busy by Director Robert V. Vignola, his cameramen and assistants. The burning and sinking of a steamship following an explosion of ammunition, was faithfully pictured and the casualty (in the picture only) proved quite exciting. Other scenes, notable a remarkable cloud effect, were "shot" with excellent results. "The Woman God Changed" is a beautiful photoplay and fully up to the high standard set by Paramount.

The prosecutor stated that the same Frank Hutson was arrested for driving his machine without lights, and pleaded guilty to the charge this week in Justice Stech's court.

C. W. Duncan, attorney for the defendant, stated that the evidence would probably show that there were several machines stopping at frequent intervals in front of the Lawson residence, but on account of the railroad, it made it necessary for machines to stop in front of the house, even if the occupants were visiting at some of the neighboring houses.

He stated that the facts presented by Prosecutor Stevens were greatly exaggerated, and that the evidence would contradict his statements. He said that the defendant is afflicted and that she could not have conducted the alleged traffic, with which she is charged.

Help Santa Claus Along

Good old Santa Claus will soon be shaking hands with us again. He never passes this town by in his annual trips—and we trust he never passes by any person in the town or community.

But to be sure that every one will be remembered on Christmas day it would be well for us to look around a bit. There may be some one who has been forgotten. Let us realize by the business depression under which we have been laboring.

If there is such a person, or such a family, our greatest joy should be in remembering those who are without the means to remember themselves. The ideal way is to contribute to the Daily Republican—Salvation Army Santa Claus Fund which is organized to distribute Christmas cheer.

Repeat the golden rule for inspiration.

A Greater Menace

High up in the air there is a powerful current blowing from Japan toward this country which, with the aid of a motor, would drive an aeroplane from that country to our western coast in about fifteen minutes. Eddie Rickonbacher, king of American aces, is authority for this statement.

Consider the possibilities.

Japan could assemble a fleet of fifty or a hundred bombing planes and start them en masse. Within fifteen hours they would be at San Francisco. A few hours later they could be hovering over every city in the United States, ready to blot them out dropping tons of high explosives.

Is this possibility worth a passing thought?

Wouldn't it be well to worry less over obsolete battleships and give more attention to the greater menace?

Assigning United States marines to guard registered mail pouches was an excellent move. Your money is much safer in transit now. By the time the marines have killed off a few more bandits they may conclude that the government poker has a hot end.

Beware of the stranger who aggressively offers you his hand. He wants you to put something in it.

It may be true that the late war has many lessons to teach, but school is not in session.

A really brave man seldom offers excuses. Facts are sufficient warrant for his action.

A man should never refer to his wife as the "old woman." It gives away his own age.

It's a terrible jolt to the optimist to find himself holding the bag.

Friendship is precious as long as you can turn it to account.

Too often the test of friendship is a willingness to be used.

WILL APPEAL FOR AID IN BIBLE LANDS

Near East Relief Will Make Special Effort For Orphans in Stricken Areas at Christmas Time

$5 A MONTH KEEPS ONE CHILD

Near East Relief in behalf of thousands of children in the Bible Lands of Asia Minor who look to America as their only friend, will again appeal to the clergy, the church and the Sunday school to remember the stricken orphans at Christmas time.

Every Sunday School in Indiana, every church and every fraternal organization as well as individuals, are asked to remember the stricken children of Armenia in the Christmas donations. Here is the appeal: "And they laid Him in a manger because there was no room for Him in the inn. Today there are 100,000 children in the lands where Christ was born gathered by Near East Relief into orphanages and homes and another hundred thousand for whom there is no room—anywhere. In the memory of the Christ child will you not provide shelter for one of His little ones of this His birthday?"

The relief organization asks that every Sunday School in Indiana "adopt" orphans. Five dollars a month keeps the child alive. The relief committee asserts that the need of the orphans of the Bible lands is the most critical since the world war. Governor Warren T. McCray, honorary chairman, and Ed Jackson active chairman, will join in the Christmas appeal.

Thomas C. Day, 403 City Trust Building, Indianapolis, will receive contributions for the orphans.

Ella Kehrler Reminds Women's Clubs They Have Pledged Themselves to Help in Tuberculosis Fight

SENDS LETTER TO WOMEN

Chairman Declares Christmas Seal is Means of Carrying Strong Defences by Way of Education

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 13—Reminding them that the Indiana and the National Federation of Women's Clubs have pledged themselves to help in the fight against tuberculosis, Mrs. Ella Bagot Kehrler, of this city, is appealing to Indiana clubwomen to boost the Christmas Seal Sale. Mrs. Kehrler, who is active in the work in Madison County, is chairman of the public health committee of the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs. In her letter to the clubwomen of the State, she says: "It is unnecessary to tell a group of dependable, competent and alert clubwomen to forward all the better things of life, to improve present conditions and to save the homes. They already know how necessary it is to co-operate with all organizations and to work together for the benefit of humanity and future citizenship. The shortage of work for men and women, the high prices for food and clothing, makes comfortable living conditions impossible for a great many families, resulting in under-nourished and anemic children and opens the way for all kinds of diseases, more especially tuberculosis.

"The Christmas seal is the means of carrying on strong defense by way of education, clinics, nurses literature, open window rooms, open-air schools, open-air cottages and sleeping porches. It assists in placing in each school scales for weighing and measuring; one quart of milk for each child, hot lunches, including soup; nutrition clinics, and common sense prevention. ## ATWOOD BLACKSMITH IDENTIFIES PRINTS

Wesley Orentt Shoer of Fred Decker's Horse, Says Prints Along
Railroad Corresponded

ALSO VISITED THE COTTAGE

(By United Press)
Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 14.—The village blacksmith of Atwood testified for the defense Tuesday, forging a few links in the chain of circumstances by which the state is seeking to convict Fred Decker of an insurance murder plot in connection with the death of Leroy Lovett.

Wesley Orentt who used to shoe Fred Decker's horses, testified that Fred's horses had been hitched to the buggy which straddled the Pennsylvania railroad track near Atwood and near which Lovett's body had been placed to give the murder the scene of an accident. Orentt said he knew Fred's horse by the imprints of the shoe on the roadside. He also told of a visit to the murder cabin on Fred's farm where Lovett's head was beaten in with a heavy iron bar. The cottage, he said, was in disorder with the stove pipe on the floor and other evidence of a struggle.

The defense also brought forth Fred Decker's eleven-year-old daughter Ruth and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Cal Decker in an effort to free Fred of the charge of conspiring with his two brothers and mother to collect $24,000 life insurance Virgil Decker carried by falsely identifying the body as that of Lovett.

Ruth gave evidence to offset that introduced previously by the state which tended to show Decker had plotted first to murder Fred Lovett, the younger brother of Leroy.

EXPECT FAST PACE IN ARMS CONFERENCE

Important Matters That May Clear up The Program, Probable
Before the Week End

SLIGHT CHANGES POSSIBLE

Washington, Dec. 14.—More lightning-like developments of far-reaching importance are expected in the arms conference within the next few days. Although a complete and official agreement has not yet been reached on the ratio question and other vital features of the Hughes limitation of armament program the extraordinary air of optimism prevalent for the last few days continues and the belief is that the conference program will be well cleared up before the end of the week. Today the quadruple Pacific treaty will be formally signed as the result of the sudden announcement yesterday of a complete agreement between the U. S. and Japan. The big three will meet again on the naval ratio. It appeared today a meeting was under way to change the Hughes program so that more older battleships would be kept. Collapse of effective opposition in the senate to the Pacific treaty was seen today and President Harding may submit the pact for ratification earlier than was expected.

AMUSEMENTS

"Singing River" at Mystic

"Bill" Russell puts a bagful of "pep" in his latest William Fox western story, "Singing River", which will be seen at the Mystic today.

Russell begins his fighting for law and order alone, but gets a pal and together they do some fine work in getting rid of the crooks, although it cannot be said that they have an easy time of it—especially Russell, who believes for a time that the trusted pal has been false. Vola Vale, as leading woman, does her part bravely and helps Russell set things right.

Beside Miss Vale, Russell is supported by Clark Comstock, Jack Roseleigh, Arthur Morhison, Jack McDonald, Jack Hull, Louis King and Charles King. All help to make the play most entertaining and colorful.

Jules G. Furthman has written a clever scenario for the play, and Charles Giblyn has staged it with some very impressive scenic effects.

PRIMARY PERFORMS

The Primary department of Webb's school, southwest of Rushville, presented an entertainment, "A Trip to Story Land", at the building Tuesday night. The program consisted of musical numbers and was arranged by Miss Margaret Mahin, teacher of the primary department, assisted by Miss Talbert. About forty pupils in the first and second grade took part.

URGES LIMIT ON SPECIAL SESSION

the new reformatory be located more centrally.

"I consider it a most fortunate circumstance that we were able to find a customer for a piece of property that ordinarily would attract few buyers and at the same time acquire such a valuable industrial asset for the state as we do when the corporation of Colgate & Company becomes established," the governor said after reviewing the negotiations with the cosmetic manufacturers.

"I am reliably informed that the location of Colgate & Company in Indiana will assure the location of other important industries in that locality. I am therefore asking your favorable action on the impending bill as it is an important step in a business transaction in which the states' best interests, good faith and honor are involved."

In passing the removal bill during the 1921 regular session, the legislature failed to make adequate provision for replacing the reformatory, but this defect was not discovered until the site had been sold. The present law provided that the reformatory be combined with the state penal farm in Putnam county but the governor said this proposal was found to be impracticable.

According to stories circulating in fistie circles, Jack Britton may retire from the ring an undefeated welterweight champion.
